

Kallie Hargrove

Kallie Hargrove is a Sickle Cell Patient & Advocate, who has been active with the foundation since childhood as a poster child and camper at Camp Sickle Stars.

After graduating from Raymond High School, Kallie went on to attend Hampton University in Hampton, VA, and earned her bachelors in kinesiology. She is now currently in nursing school with plans of becoming a hematology/oncology nurse after graduation in May 2020.

To help spread awareness & educate others about sickle cell, Kallie started to participate in pageants, where her platform is "Breaking the Sickle Cycle". She has held the titles of Miss Black West Hinds County 2018 and Miss Black Mississippi US Ambassador 2019.
